

Smart Facts

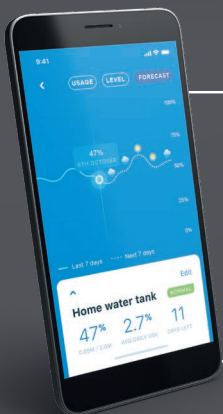

Active Repeater

The Smart Water Active Repeater is the ultimate tool to ensure even the most difficult installations can operate reliably. Whether it is rough terrain and obstructions or extreme long distance the Active Repeater will ensure system stability and performance. A truly plug and play unit, just turn it on and allow it to power your system to new heights. Up to three Active Repeaters can be utilised on the Smart Water network giving you complete flexibility and control.

Features

- Solar powered with a powerful Lithium-ion power source
- Rugged materials engineered to perform in the harshest environments
- Long range wireless performance, tested up to 10km
- Up to 12 tank transmitters and 12 pump controllers can be added
- Up to three repeaters can be used on a single network
- Custom system alerts and alarms for full visibility of your system status
- Fully programmable automatic pump operation
- Name your tanks and pumps for ease of reference
- Set the density for measurement of different fluids
- Convenient timers to remind you of tank maintenance requirements
- Range can be extended using the Active Repeater

Mobile App available:

Mobile App including advanced features such as graphing and weather forecasting. The ultimate water management tool in the palm of your hand.

See more at www.smartwateronline.com

